HARBINGER,

DEVOTED TO

SOCIAL AND POLITICAL PROGRESS.

"All things, at the present day, stand provided and prepared, and await the light."

VOL. I.

PUBLISHED BY THE BROOK FARM PHALANX.

NEW-YORK:
BURGESS, STRINGER, AND COMPANY.
BOSTON:
REDDING AND COMPANY.
M DCCC XLV.

Of modern civilization, the natural fruits are, contempt for others' rights, fraud, oppression, a gambling spirit in trade, reckless adventure, and commercial convulsions all tending to impoverish the laborer and to render every condition insecure. Relief is to come, and can only come from the new application of Christian principles, of Universal justice and Universal love, to social institutions, to commerce, to business, to active life.—WILLIAM ELLERY CHANNING.
